

BLOOMFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS
THURSDAY NOON FILMS

90 Broad Street, Bloomfield NJ 07003

MARCH 2010

PROGRAM STARTS AT 12:15 P.M.

March 4, 2010
Julie & Julia
123 minutes (PG-13)
Color 2009

Julia Child's (Meryl Streep) story of her start in the cooking profession is intertwined with blogger Julie Powell's (Amy Adams) 2002 challenge to cook all the recipes in Child's first book. Nominated for 2 Golden Globes. Another 3 wins and 6 nominations. Meryl Streep won Best Actress Golden Globe award.

March 11, 2010
Red River
133 minutes (NR)
B & W 1948

Tom Dunson (John Wayne) is driving his cattle to Red River when his adopted son, Matthew (Montgomery Clift), turns against him. Nominated for 2 Oscars. Another 1 win and 2 nominations. Also starring Walter Brennan and Joanne Dru.

March 18, 2010
Road To Rio
100 minutes (NR)
B & W 1947

Two inept vaudevillians (Bob Hope and Bing Crosby) stow away on a Brazilian-bound ocean liner and foil a plot by a sinister hypnotist (Gale Sondergaard) to marry off her niece (Dorothy Lamour) to a greedy fortune teller. Nominated for Oscar.

March 25, 2010
Public Enemies
140 minutes (R)
COLOR 2009

The Feds try to take down notorious American gangsters John Dillinger (Jonny Depp), Baby Face Nelson (Stephen Graham) and Pretty Boy Floyd (Channing Tatum) during a booming crime wave in the 1930's. Rated R for gangster violence and some language. 7 Nominations.

ADMISSION IS FREE
FOR INFORMATION OR DIRECTIONS CALL: 973- 566-6200