

Library for the Blind & Handicapped \(LBH\)

The Library for the Blind & Handicapped provides free audiocassette books and cassette players for state residents of all ages who need them. If you are legally blind, dyslexic, or unable to turn pages in a printed book, you may be eligible for this service. You do not need to be a Bloomfield resident or totally blind to qualify. Ask at the Reference Desk for an application (<http://www.njlbh.org/application.htm>) and for information about or services offered about library services for the visually impaired. To contact the NJ State Library for the Blind and Handicapped directly, call 1-800-792-8322.
