Summer Reading Lists 2007

To encourage independent reading and an appreciation for fine literature, the English and Social Studies Departments have compiled the following list of titles. Students should prepare for the grade they will be entering in September. During the first full week of school all students will be assessed through formal testing.

Entering 9th Grade:

Night by Elie Wiesel
The Good Earth by Pearl Buck

Entering 10th Grade:

April Morning by Howard Fast
Inherit the Wind by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee

Entering 11th Grade:

Black Like Me by John Howard Griffin
Brave New World by Aldous Huxley

Entering 12th Grade:

Girl With a Pearl Earring by Tracy Chevalier
The Road by Cormac McCarthy
