

Bloomfield Public Library Electronic Books Resource

Classic books are often available free online as Ebooks. They are available in a variety of formats. Plain text documents can be read in any Word Processing program, HTML documents can be read online or offline using any Internet browser. PDB files can be read on certain handheld computers. LIT files can be read using Microsoft Reader, which can be downloaded for free at this website. Your copy of Microsoft Reader will probably have to be registered and your computer will prompt you as to what is necessary to do this (this is often necessary for ebooks that are bought and may be unnecessary for free ebooks). PDF format ebooks can be read as any Adobe Acrobat file, or can be read in Adobe Reader which can also be downloaded for free from Adobe's website.
